

Registration

Students may register for courses or workshops in person, by phone or by email, as well as on the website.

Students must register before the start date of the course or workshop. Payment is required at the time of registration to guarantee placement.