

Prior Learning Assessment

Course exemptions may be awarded as a result of an assessment of prior learning gained from the following types of experiential learning:

1. Work experience
2. Informal education and training (including non-graded VISA courses and workshops)
3. Self-study
4. Volunteer activities
5. Other life experiences

To be considered for Prior Learning Assessment, students must submit a written letter and a CV that clearly indicates previous experience they have in their field, as well as images (slides or JPGS of their work).
