

Supply List - Collage I: 20th Century Art in the Making MMED232-36 FA20

Items required for the first class:

- 11"x14" board
- 1-2 sheets Stonehenge paper (or equivalent)
- 4B pencil
- black Conté
- kneadable eraser
- white gesso, medium size (any brand)
- large bottle of Golden soft gel medium gloss or wall covering adhesive
- scalpel or X-Acto knife with extra blades
- cutting surface (can be a piece of hardboard or a cutting mat)
- collage resource materials (old sheet music, old book pages, brown Kraft paper etc.)
- large 3" house painting brush
- 1 roll of Blue Shop towels
- Dove unscented extra hold hairspray
- old used credit card or a silicone/plastic scraper

Additional items to be discussed during the first class:

Painting:

- Liquitex clear gesso, medium size
- matte medium (any brand)
- water based Varathane satin finish
- acrylic paints (student set with primary colours black, white, and burnt umber)
- 1", 2", 4" foam brushes

Surfaces:

- 4-6 sheets of white Stonehenge paper
- 11 surfaces - hardboard panels 1/4" (Home Depot or Castle: have them cut down a half sheet (11"x14" or 16"x20"), don't buy the 1/8 since they will warp), other alternatives are cradled panels, 1/4 MDF or birch plywood 11"x14" or 16"x20" (Home Depot or Castle), or found materials such as plywood scraps or heavy cardboard, canvas covered panels are also a possibility (warping is a problem)

Other Materials:

- small glue gun and glue sticks
- package of cellulose sponges
- medium and coarse foam sanding blocks
- pair of small embroidery or nail scissors
- several large used yogurt containers
- stirring sticks or old spoon
- 2-4 rolls of Blue Shop towels
- roll of white Reynolds freezer paper
